1. Tanzraumförderung

Dance Space Funding (TRF) is an opportunity for independent dance makers in Hamburg to develop their work with their own bodies (also in collaboration with colleagues) and their artistic research. As part of the funding, dance creators are provided with slots in dance studios to enable regular training. For this purpose, the Dachverband freie darstellende Künste Hamburg e.V. rents various studios in Hamburg as part of a grant from the Hamburg Ministry of Culture and Media and distributes 2 to 3-hour rehearsal slots free of charge to independent Hamburg dance creators. The distribution of slots for regular and flexible use is based on demand. These hours are Mon.-Sun. between 8.00 am and 6.00 pm. Applications are open to freelance dance professionals who work full-time as dancers, choreographers and dance mediators in Hamburg. Dance professionals must fulfil two of the following three requirements:

- Realisation of or participation in a professional dance production (as a dancer, choreographer or dance mediator/dance teacher) or a comparable format
- Completion of a dance degree programme, dance training or proof of equivalent professional experience
- Recommendation by a person who is already in the TRF (in the sense of peer-Evaluation)
